Bike rally marks Kargil Vijay Diwas

Mysuru, July 26 (RKB&SSM)- Remembering the sacrifices made by the Jawans during the 1999 War against Pakistan, a bike rally was taken out in city to mark Kargil Vijay Diwas this morning.

MLC C.N. Manjegowda and MLA L. Nagendra flagged off the bike rally organised jointly by the State and Mysuru District Unit of Akhila Karnataka Ex-Servicemen Association and Rotary Heritage Club Mysore from Field Marshal K.M. Cariappa Circle (Metropole Hotel Circle) after offering floral tributes to the bust of Field Marshal Cariappa.

Over 350 people, including Ex-servicemen, NCC cadets and Rotarians, took out the rally to create awareness among youths about patriotism and unite the Ex-servicemen.

Bikers, adorning their vehicles with Indian flag, passed through JLB Road, Dr. Babu Jagjivan Ram Circle (Railway Station Circle), Irwin Road, New Sayyaji Rao Road, Prabha Theatre Road, Gandhi Square, Clock Tower, Chamaraja Wadiyar Circle, Bengaluru-Nilgiri Road, Gun House Circle, Ramaswamy Circle, Fire Brigade and reached Rotary West Auditorium in Saraswathipuram.

One minute silence was observed to pay homage for all the Martyrs. Children, dressed as Mahatma Gandhi, Jawaharlal Nehru, Subhas Chandra Bose, Bhagat Singh, Obavva, Jhansi Rani Lakshmibai, Kittur Rani Chennamma etc., attracted the crowd at the stage programme at Rotary West Hall.

Speaking after inaugurating the stage programme, MLC Manjegowda remembered those days when the Kargil War began. "It was May 3, 1999 when the Kargil War started. Soldiers were guarding the India border where the temperature was zero degrees. Five Soldiers who were captured at the Pakistan-occupied Indian border were killed after brutal treatment. Nearly 520 members, including 490 officers, Soldiers, Jawans and the general public, lost their lives in the three-month conflict," he recalled.

Saluting the martyred Soldiers, Manjegowda, himself an Ex-serviceman, recalled his journey and said, "I have served in the Army, Police Department and Srirampura Gram Panchayat as GP President before becoming a Member of Legislative Council (MLC). I am fighting for the rights of Ex-servicemen as an MLC now and will continue to help in seeking basic facilities and needs for them."

22-year wait for War Memorial ends

District Minister to lay foundation stone in city on July 29

Mysuru, July 26 (MTY&DM)- Ending the 22-year-long wait for the construction of a grand War Memorial in Mysuru, the time for the actual construction has at last come with District Minister S.T. Somashekar scheduled to lay the foundation stone for the same on July 29 at the NCC Parade Grounds adjacent to the DC's Office, which is right in front of NCC Group Headquarters.

Sources said that Somashekar will perform guddali puja for the War Memorial project, that is estimated to cost Rs.1.41 crore, at 12 noon on Friday, a day after Ashada Month concludes on July 28.

The Memorial will come up at a plot measuring 40'x40' ft in the NCC Parade Grounds. Although it was planned to perform guddali puja before the commencement of Ashada Month, it could not be done as the District Minister was on an official foreign tour.

Setting the tone for the construction of the War Memorial, the PWD had issued the work order on Apr. 25, 2022, setting Aug. 24, 2022 as the deadline for the completion of the construction. The Kannada and Culture Department has already released Rs. 50 lakh for the project.

Details: The War Memorial will be 43 ft. tall, including the 10 ft. foundation, with a 5 ft Sanaranth Ashoka Emblem on all four sides. The Memorial that will be in square shape will have the elements of the city's heritage characteristics. The main entrance depicts the symbols of the three wings of the Defence Forces — Army, Navy and Air Force — while three other sides will have the insignia of the Armed Forces and the Armoury that include Army tanks, Fighter aircraft, Navy ships, Guns, Artillery and other weapons.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

There was no better place than the verandah to start your day with a hot cup of coffee and a newspaper. Its grill supported winding creepers that lent charm. Sitting in the verandah you could hear the friendly street hawker passing by. You could stop him with a loud shout not even getting up from your seat! The brightly lit verandah with its comfy bamboo chairs was the perfect destination to curl up and read a book on a lazy afternoon.

The verandah occupied a pivotal role in enforcing the household's 'guest protocol.' Business matters such as talking to the itinerant salesman or the family lawyer, always took place in the verandah. Garrulous neighbours given to endless chatter were conveniently confined to the verandah, leaving the rest of the household in peace. Some visitors, notably relatives, took umbrage if restricted to the verandah alone as they felt entitled to be hosted in the inner precincts of the house.

Now living in a dwelling that has a much abbreviated version of the verandah, I am resigned to entertain visitors all and sundry, in a living room that has a full view of the kitchen and dining areas. I often cringe at the loss of privacy. Moreover, I miss the serenity that I used to enjoy just sitting in my beloved verandah. —Anand Simha in Deccan Herald

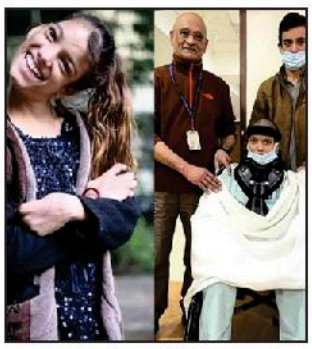
Girl with neck bent at 90 degrees treated free



New Delhi- Afsheen Gul, a 13-year-old teenager from Pakistan's Sindh province could never go to school or play with her friends as she met with an accident when she was 10 months old, left her neck bent at 90 degrees. Her parents took her to a doctor, but her condition didn't improve. Her pain only grew worse.

Afsheen also suffers from cerebral palsy. For 12 years, she was left to bear the cross of agony. In March, a doctor from across the border offered to operate on her without charging a single penny. Dr Rajagopalan Krishnan, a doctor at Delhi's Apollo Hospital, successfully performed surgery on her neck. "This is probably the first case of its kind in the world," he said.

Afsheen got in touch with Dr Krishnan when Alexandria Thomas, a British journalist, did a story on her. She put Afsheen and her family in touch with the doctor.

"Dr Krishnan told us that her heart or lungs may stop beating during the operation, the family said. She had to undergo four major operations before her neck could get better.

VOICE OF THE READER

Woes of water consumers

Sir,

Last year the water meter reader told us that the meter was not working properly so we had to give an application to install a new meter and pay Rs. 2,000 for the same.

After 3 to 4 months we got the new meter installed. Now after this new meter was installed the latest bill we got was Rs. 3,300.

So we called the water meter reader and the water inspector and told them to check the meter they installed. They asked us to give an application again and since we reside in Dattagalli 3rd Stage, it becomes difficult to go to Vani Vilas Water Works at the other end of Mysuru, that is in Yadavagiri, every now and then.

We pay our bills in Saraswathipuram so should we not give the application to this office only?

Mysuru is growing and should not VVWW decentralise and form zones so it helps people. Government agencies must try to be people-friendly and not an office to harass.

Now back to the water meter which was tested and put again runs as fast as a fan and when we brought this to the notice of the area water inspector again the same story of getting it checked again at VVWW.

Now this goes on in circles and my meter is still under warranty but these people say they will not replace it.

The JE to whom I called at least 25 times is not picking up. The higher ups numbers are not available to us. And the phone numbers listed for public is never picked up despite it ringing incessantly. Now we have closed the inlet valve as we think the next bill will be equally high.

But this seems to be a web. Meter reader telling meter not working and then the new meter runs bizarre. Is there anything shady going on?

We have heard a number of complaints on the same line from many people in Dattagalli and many other new areas. Can the Executive Engineer and the likes look into this matter?

Do not chop trees, help them grow: Saalumarada Thimmakka

Zoo Youth Club-2022 activities begin

Mysuru, July 26 (SBD&KS)- "Do not chop trees, but help them grow," said Padmashri Saalumarada Thimmakka. She was speaking after inaugurating Youth Club-2022 activities, organised jointly by the National Youth Organisation and Mysuru Zoo in the Zoo premises on Sunday.

"Everyone will be blessed if the young and the old plant saplings, nurture them and help them grow into big trees. Every individual should plant saplings and nurture them, which will cause good for society," she said.

Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (PCCF- Wildlife) Vijaykumar Gogi said that trees are not just trunks with branches and leaves but it is a world for insects, birds, squirrels and other living organisms which dwell on trees.

Pointing out that these living things need trees for their food and shelter, the PCCF said that just like how human beings feel sad if their homes are destroyed, tree-dwelling living organisms too feel sad and become homeless if trees are chopped down. People should think twice about these living things before axing trees, she added

Stating that trees were like fertiliser factories, Gogi said that instead of using chemical fertilisers, more saplings should be planted as it would help the land in becoming fertile and asked farmers to plant more saplings as they play an important role in keeping the land fertile.

"There is a lot of difference between natural and man-made world. Water that flows from forests is consumed by human beings. Though wild animals use the water, it is still pure. But the water which is used by human beings is not used by any living beings," the PCCF said.

Continuing, Gogi said that the efforts of the Forest Department have helped in protecting 23 percent of forests. If one develops the habit of planting saplings and nurturing them from childhood, thousands of saplings can be planted, and nurtured and help them grow into big trees just like what Saalumadara Thimmakka did, he added.

Mysuru Zoo Executive Director Ajith M. Kulkarni said that the Zoo has been organising Youth Club activities for 30 years to create awareness on the importance of biodiversity and related issues. The camp is being held for children between 12 and 18 years every Sunday till Jan.1, 2023.

Additional Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (Tiger and Elephant Project) Jagath Ram, Zoo Authority of Karnataka Member-Secretary B.P. Ravi, Members Gokul Govardhan and Jyothi Rechanna, Deputy Conservator of Forests (Wildlife) V. Karikalan, Mysuru Territorial DCF Kamala Karikalan and others were present.

Adulterated fertiliser unit raided at Mandakalli

Status of raid or arrests in Hosahundi fake Nandini Ghee manufacturing unit unknown

Mysuru, July 26 (KS)- Officials of Departments of Agriculture and Police on Sunday raided an old poultry farm near Mandakalli village and seized more than 300 bags of adulterated fertiliser. The unit was located at Survey No. 5/2 on the outskirts of Mandakalli village. It is learnt that the adulterated fertiliser, which was being manufactured in this unit was being filled into bags of various fertiliser companies and was being sold to farmers.

Agriculture Department Joint Director Dr. B.S. Chandrashekar and Assistant Director Madhulatha, with Mysuru South Police, raided the unit but neither the owner of the unit nor workers were present during the raid.

Dr. Chandrashekar said that clay in the form of small granules was being coated with red oxide and a small quantity of genuine fertiliser was being mixed with a large quantity to produce the adulterated version. Later, the fertiliser was blended in a mixer which was then filled into bags branded after many companies and then stitched to make it look like a genuine fertiliser bag.

Bags of clay, a mixing unit, a weighing machine, a sewing machine and genuine fertiliser bags were found in the fake unit. Agriculture Department officials, who have seized the above items and also the empty poultry farm, have lodged a complaint at Mysuru South Police Station.

Officials said that preliminary investigations revealed that one Mahesh had taken the empty poultry farm on rent and was running the fertiliser manufacturing unit. Mahesh's mobile phone number and Aadhaar Card number have been given to the Police in the complaint, the officials said.

Nanjangud case

Another adulterated fertiliser manufacturing unit was unearthed at Hirikati village on the Nanjangud-Gundlupet border on June 22.

Agriculture Department officials from Mysuru and Nanjangud had jointly conducted a raid on the manufacturing unit during which a large quantity of spurious fertiliser was seized.

A case was registered at Nanjangud Rural Police Station.

Fake Nandini Ghee unit

It may be recalled that a fake Nandini Ghee manufacturing unit was operating in a godown on the outskirts of Hosahundi village at the foot of Chamundi Hill seven months ago. The raids created a storm and a major controversy.

Activists of a NGO had brought this to light on Dec. 16, 2021, following which Mysuru South Police and officials of MyMUL conducted a raid.

Based on the complaint from MyMUL officials, Mysuru South Police had registered a case. However, the status of the case, number of arrests and details of the investigation are unknown after the initial hype and claims.

'Instant loan' apps used to lure, blackmail people

Call Cybercrime Helpline - 1930 or 112 or contact CEN Police Station - 0821-2418598/ 94808-02263

Mysuru, July 26 (RK&DM)- With science and technology making rapid strides, miscreants are looking at newer ways to rob people of their money and other belongings and Mysuru city is witnessing a rise in cheating cases in the name of loan apps.

In one of the latest modes of cheating, miscreants have started creating fake loan apps, through which gullible people who want loans for their necessities, are targeted.

The modus operandi is to send fake loan application links to gullible persons. After obtaining the necessary documents for the grant of loans from the loan seeker, these apps grant loans instantly. But even after the loanee has returned the loans along with due interest, these apps send messages asking them to pay more money, even though the loan is repaid in full.

Failing to do so will land the loanees into trouble as the miscreants, taking advantage of the documents they have, create morphed pictures and circulate them widely through social networking sites or apps.

Many such cases are being reported in Mysuru and in some instances, the harassed loanees have even attempted suicide unable to bear harassment and blackmail.

Alarmed by the increasing number of complaints in this regard at the Cybercrime, Economic Offences and Narcotics (CEN) Police Station, the City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta has asked the citizens to be aware of fake loan apps and other mischievous apps.

The Commissioner has suggested some DOs and DON'Ts — Do not install loan apps that are not listed in the RBI's NBFC list, do not receive WhatsApp or other networking calls, do not click blue coloured links from unknown calls or messages, complain immediately to the CEN Police in case an individual falls into a trap.

Citizens can call the Cybercrime Helpline - 1930 or 112 or contact the CEN Police Station - 0821-2418598/ 94808-02263.

FAKE APP LIST BY POLICE

The Police have also listed some fake loan apps which are as follows: UPA loan, MI Rupay, Rupee Loan, Cash Park loan, Rupee Box, Ason Loan, Cash Pocket, Cash Advance, Sun Cash on stream, Insta Money, Stand Pro, Far Pay App , Cash Pay, Loan zone, 66 Cash, Daily Loan, Rupiya Bas, Angel Loan, Loan Saathi, Gold cash, Sky loan, Sharp Loan, Holiday Mobile Loan, Quick Loan, Rocket Loan, Loan Home, Lend Maale, Easy Loan, Minute cash, Mycash Loan, Early credit, Rich cash, Best Paisa, Rupee Magic, Hello Rupee, etc.

Two wild elephants electrocuted in Kodagu Coffee Estate

Madikeri, July 26 (Akshay, PS&KS)- Two wild elephants were electrocuted after they came in contact with an 11 KV power line passing through Attimangala Coffee Estate near Nelyahudikeri in the district.

An 11 KV power line, passing above the coffee estate belonging to Koneriera Prakash and Mandepanda Suresh Changappa, had sagged to 5 ft. above the ground as tree branches had fallen on them due to rain and wind.

On Sunday night, the two wild elephants which entered the coffee estate in search of food and water, came in contact with the sagging power line and were electrocuted instantly. While one of the dead elephants was a 12-year-old male elephant, the other was a 13-year-old female elephant.

Coffee estate workers, who came to the estate for work on Monday morning, saw the two dead elephants and the Forest Department officials, who collected information from the estate owners, visited the spot and conducted an inspection.

The dead elephants were lifted with the help of a crane and were placed inside a truck. They were shifted to the forest area where post-mortem was conducted.

Polishing PDS rice and selling for higher price

Large quantity of ration rice seized from Mill near Mandya

Mandya Rural Police register case against five persons

Mandya, July 26- The Food and Civil Supplies Department officials, who raided a rice mill on July 21, have seized 635 quintal of Public Distribution Scheme (PDS) rice worth Rs. 16.60 lakh and have also seized the rice mill.

Based on the information provided by a news channel, a team of officials, comprising Food Inspector Pavithra, Tahsildar and other officials, raided Balaji Rice Mill at Halasagere village on Bengaluru-Mysuru Highway in the taluk on July 21.

After conducting a detailed inspection for two days, the officials seized 635 quintal rice and a truck (TN-29-BC-6113), which was parked in front of the rice mill. As one Sumanth, who was running the rice mill, had switched off his mobile phone when contacted, the officials have seized the rice mill. "PDS rice was being polished at the rice mill and was being sold after being packed under the names of various brands," officials said.

While 40 quintal rice bags under the brand name 'Taj Mahal' was found in the truck, 65 quintal rice bags of the same brand name was found inside the rice mill. 43 quintal rice was found in other part of the rice mill.

The officials during the raid found three bunkers in the rice mill which was being used to hide PDS rice bags. 124 quintal rice bags were found in these bunkers. In all, 365 quintal rice worth Rs. 16,60,750 was found in the rice mill. When the officials inspected the rice mill completely, they found no traces of paddy hulling but found traces of rice being polished at the rice mill.

The rice mill belonged to late Bettegowda, but one Sumanth was running the mill at present and Basha of Gangavathi in Koppal district was employed as the Supervisor of the mill, which came to be known during enquiry by the officials.

Officials said that large quantity of PDS rice was being purchased illegally, brought to the rice mill where rice grains were polished, repacked under various brand names and was being sold at higher price. They further said that though the job at the rice mill was hulling paddy to separate husk from rice grains, nothing of that sort was taking place at the rice mill. Instead, a racket involving polishing rice grains using hi-tech equipment and packing the polished rice under various brand names to be sold at higher rates was taking place. A small quantity of paddy husk was stored to eyewash officials to show that hulling was taking place at the rice mill, the Food Department officials added.

The Food and Civil Department officials have lodged a complaint against five persons including Sumanth, Rice Mill Supervisor Basha, truck driver and owner at Mandya Rural Police Station.

Later during the tea break I met Geetanjali Shree at the writers' lounge. I asked her what exactly the title of the book meant or suggested. Yes, she was queried about the title at the session and she had answered in English but interspersing it with Hindi. I did not really comprehend what she said. But, ever since I read a review of her book in English newspaper, this question has been nagging my mind.

According to a report published in Deccan Herald this was what she had said: "I do not agree with the translation of the title of the book 'Ret Samadhi' into 'Tomb of Sand'. All that goes into Samadhi improves there and re-emerges after some time. Some people think that they can kill some thoughts or ideologies and can change the course of history. But it is only temporary."

After reading this I was further pushed into a grey area about the connotation of the word 'Samadhi'. I asked her if the word Samadhi meant 'Nirvana'? She said, 'No. Samadhi is different from the English word Tomb. If you want to know what it means, then read the book,' and walked away, apparently she was in a hurry.

As I sat sipping the hot coffee with its cerebral aroma, I remembered two persons — Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa, the Saint and Dr. U.R. Ananthamurthy, the intellectual. I have read that Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa used to go into Samadhi for some time all of a sudden and re-emerge to the world before the congregation of his devotees. So also Ramana Maharishi.

In English this state of 'Samadhi' is translated as 'Trance'. It means a sleeplike state without response to stimuli; half-conscious state; ecstasy. Well, then the English translation of the title of the book should be 'Sand Trance' not 'Sand Tomb'!!

It may suggest the transient nature of our life like the 'Samadhi' of a saint. And 'Samadhi' also means the place where a dead person is buried. Therefore, if it is buried with sand what is buried will soon re-emerge, as the grains of sand cannot bind together to hold what is buried.

Geetanjali Shree (right) and moderator Sita Bhaskar.

Yamini Muthanna speaking on yoga for children.

Our own Snake Shyam taking a class about snakes.

Sufi music by Aparyaaptha.

Now let me come to our own Dr. U.R. Ananthamurthy who had said about the problems faced while translating works from one language to English or any other language. He says:

"For us in India, it should never matter what is translatable in English and what would be acceptable to the literary ethos of the West. If we begin to think that what is good is what is eminently translatable into modern ethos, we cannot be forgiven." So, according to him, get translated, does not matter how well it is done.

But the question with 'Tomb of Sand' is whether we can reduce the philosophical to the literal. No. That means 'Samadhi' is not 'Tomb'. If so there is a word in English 'Trance'. After all, as I mentioned, the word 'Samadhi' has many connotations.

The sessions in Kannada and English in two separate venues held simultaneously seemed to cause the problem of choice for the people. And the programmes on 24th seemed to be of too short a duration of half-an-hour in quick succession. There was even a Yakshagana! Grammy Award Winner Ricky Kej on the evening of the first day, 23rd, was a great hit.

And then how can I forget that great cricketer Krishnamachari Srikkanth's inspirational talk walking across the stage with a baritone voice packed with humour. It was like a stand-up comedy show.

The organisers did not forget our children. There were four programmes — Yoga for youths by Yamini Muthanna who has brought out a very useful book for children on yoga; Snake Shyam to talk about animal empathy and the need to love nature. Preceding this session, there was a beautiful Sufi music rendered by youngsters.

And finally, three hurrahs for the Mysuru Literature Festival-2022. Mysuru's cultural and literary tradition was further enhanced. Thanks to the new torch-bearers.

Government nominates Heads to 21 Boards and Corporations

Raghu Kautilya Srinivas Shivakumar Nijagunaraju Ravi Kalappa

Mysuru / Bengaluru, July 26 (RK&DM)- With just about nine months away for the Assembly polls, the Government on Monday named new Heads to 21 Boards and Corporations across the State.

The Government, ahead of the reshuffle, had recalled the nominations to several Boards and Corporations, including those in Mysuru, earlier this month.

According to the list, Raghu R. Kautilya has been appointed as Chairman of Mysuru Paints and Varnish Limited (formerly Mysore Lac and Paints-My-LAC), which was previously headed by another BJP leader N.V. Phaneesh. Raghu Kautilya had served as Chairman of D. Devaraj Urs Backward Classes Development Corporation until he quit the post late last year to contest the MLC polls from the twin-member Mysuru-Chamarajanagar Local Bodies Constituency held in December last, which he lost.

In other appointments, senior BJP leader from K.R. Nagar M.K. Srinivas (Mirle Srinivas Gowda) has been appointed as Chairman of Karnataka Exhibition Authority (KEA), which post was earlier held by Mysuru BJP leader Hemanth Kumar Gowda. Srinivas is a resident of Kanakanagar in K.R. Nagar taluk.

Former MCC Corporator M. Shivakumar, also a former City BJP President, has been named as the new Chairman of Zoo Authority of Karnataka (ZAK), which post was earlier held by L.R. Mahadevaswamy. Shivakumar is a resident of Nimishamba Layout in Kuvempunagar.

Senior BJP leader from Chamarajanagar G. Nijagunaraju has been appointed as Chairman of CADA (Command Area Development Authority - Cauvery), in place of Shivalingaiah. The CADA (Cauvery) office is located on Sayyaji Rao Road in Mysuru.

Kodagu BJP leader Napanda Ravi Kalappa has been appointed as Chairman of Karnataka Biodiversity Board based in Bengaluru.

Ashada month devotee rush

Chamundi Hill Temple records Rs. 2.33 crore Hundi collection

Mysuru, July 26 (MK&DM)- The Chamundi Hill Temple, which opened to devotees after a two-year break due to COVID pandemic, has reported a record Hundi (offerings box) collection of Rs. 2.33 crore during Ashada month.

The collection include Rs. 2,29,93,719 in the form of currency notes and Rs. 3,57,531 in the form of coins. Also, 270 gram of gold jewellery and 1 kg of silver jewellery were found in the offerings box. Besides, banned currency of over Rs. 1 lakh which included Rs. 500 and Rs. 1,000 notes too were found.

The counting of Hundis of Chamundeshwari Temple was taken up yesterday, with over 250 personnel, including the staff of Karnataka Gramin Bank (earlier Kaveri Grameena Bank), taking part in the counting.

Chamundi Hill Temple Executive Officer C.G. Krishna said that apart from Hundi collection, the temple has recorded gate collection of Rs. 1,03,69,270 through sale of special entry tickets during Ashada month, which saw lakhs of devotees from across the State and neighbouring States thronging the temple during the four Ashada Fridays and Chamundeshwari Vardhanti that took place on July 20.

The temple in the past had recorded a collection of Rs. 1.59 crore, which was the highest till now. But now, a new record has been set with the Hundi collection crossing Rs. 2 crore for first time during Ashada month, he said.

Meanwhile, it is learnt that the Chamundeshwari Hill Temple, despite its record earnings, lost a revenue to the tune of Rs. 50 lakh as the number of devotees fell short of the expectations. The authorities had expected a large number of devotees this year as the temple was opened for them after a gap of two years. The shortfall in expected earnings is also attributed to the distribution of a high number of VIP passes.

22-year wait for War Memorial ends

The granite stones lying at NCC parade grounds adjacent to the Deputy Commissioner's Office which is right in front of NCC Group Headquarters, Mysuru.

The Memorial will be built out of green stones of Hassan and black granite stones sourced from Chamarajangar that are lying near the site for the past several months. The District Administration is looking for a sculptor from Mysuru to sculpt the War Memorial in the desired shape, it is learnt.

H.M. Puttamadaiah, owner of the stone quarry that has supplied granites, has donated the stones free of cost, which otherwise would have cost over Rs.1 crore. Also, the granite stones were cut into shape at SVV Granites in Chamarajanagar, owned by A. Srinath for free, including transportation of the stones to the site at Mysuru.

C.L. Ananda, during his tenure as Chamarajanagar Additional DC a few years ago, had taken great pains to ensure that the Memorial comes up in Mysuru. Doing his bit for the cause, Ananda, himself an Ex-serviceman, had convinced the quarry owner to donate the granite stones needed for the construction for the Memorial. Ananda, a KAS Officer who had also served as Assistant Commissioner in Mysuru, had completed the process for getting the approval of the State Government after Mandetira N. Subramani, President of VeKare Ex-Servicemen Trust, Mysuru, had submitted a proposal to the State Government and as well to the District Administration in the year 2000, to build a War Memorial in Mysuru, as a mark of respect for the sacrifices made by the Defence Forces. Subramani, who had proposed to name the Sainik Aram Ghar near the DC Office after Squadron Leader Ajjamada Bopayya Devayya, MVC (Posthumous), had also pursued the cause for allotment of land for the Memorial.

The then War Memorial Trust Chairman Maj.Gen. (Retd.) C.K. Karumbaya too had taken the initiative for the construction of the Memorial that also features an auditorium at the site.

Trial blasts near KRS suspended

Mandya, July 26- After stiff opposition by members of Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha (KRRS) and other organisations, who staged demonstrations at the main gate of KRS Dam on Monday with 'Go back' slogan targeting the team of Scientists from Jharkhand's Dhanbad-based Central Institute of Mining and Fuel Research (CSIR- CIMFR), who had arrived at KRS to conduct a week-long trial tests to study the impact of stone quarrying at Bebi Betta, which is in the vicinity of KRS Dam in Srirangapatna taluk of Mandya district, the District Administration late yesterday decided to suspend the trial blasts at the site.

The District Administration's decision is seen as a victory of sorts for farmer organisations and other groups which are vehemently opposing stone mining and quarrying around KRS Dam.

Upon learning that CIMFR team of scientists were preparing to carry out trial blasts on Tuesday, the farmers had launched a night-long stir in front of the Deputy Commissioner's Office at Mandya. The DC, who held a meeting with the protesting farmers and top District officials, including Mandya SP N. Yatish, declared late night on Monday that the trial blasts have been suspended for now, following which the farmers called off their stir.

KRRS President Badagalapura Nagendra and other office-bearers took part in the meeting. The farmers are said to have rejected the Mandya DC's suggestion to allow the team of Scientists to carry out their work on Tuesday. However, the farmers insisted that the team of scientists return to Jharkhand and after a long deliberation, the DC declared that the trial blasts are suspended for now, it is learnt.

Even as the DC was holding the meeting, Mine owners and Quarry workers raised slogans demanding that the trial blasts be conducted as scheduled.

The four-member team of Scientists from Jharkhand, which arrived at Bebi Betta, tried to identify the spots for conducting trial blasts, when pro and anti groups staged demonstrations. Amid the demonstrations, the team is said to have marked five spots for conducing trial blasts, with Police security in place. The team has planned to drill holes of 7 to 20 feet deep at 5 identified spots.

Meanwhile, taking note of the developments regarding the conduct of trial blasts, erstwhile Mysore Royal family member Pramoda Devi Wadiyar on Monday submitted a memorandum through her lawyer Narendra D.V. Gowda to Mandya DC Aswathi, seeking to halt the trial blasts at Bebi Betta. Stating that 1,600 acres of land in Bebi Betta belonged to Mysore Royal family, she urged the Mandya District Administration not to conduct trial blasts.

Tailors seek fulfilment of various demands

Mysuru, July 26 (PM&DM)- Seeking fulfilment of their long-standing demands, tailors, under the joint banner of Karnataka State Tailors Association (KSTA) and Snehajeevi Tailors Welfare Association, staged a demonstration in front of the Deputy Commissioner's (DC) Office this morning.

The demands included establishment of a Tailor Welfare Board to address the grievances of tailors and providing financial support, introduction of Provident Fund and Health Insurance cover, monthly pension of Rs. 3,000 to all tailors who have completed 60 years of age and are beneficiaries of National Pension System (NPS), marriage expenses fund for tailors having girl children, maternity allowance to lady tailors, financial aid or subsidy to shelterless tailors who want to build homes and student scholarship for children of tailors.

The protesters said that despite many representations in this regard to the Government, nothing has been done to address the grievances of tailors. They wanted the Government to act on their demands and come to their help, by introducing schemes that benefit the tailor community.

Earlier, the protesters, who converged on Hunsur Road junction near Kalamandira, marched in a procession to the DC's office, where a memorandum was submitted.

KSTA President Channanayaka, office-bearers R.N. Nagaraj, R. Basavaraju, Janardhan, Tara, Mariswamy, H.K. Pradeep, Siddegowda and others took part in the protest.

LOOKING BACK...

A Toast to Diplomats

When she joined the Indian Foreign Service, C.B. Muthamma had to give an undertaking that if she should marry, she would resign. Though this rule was rescinded a couple of years later, it cost a couple of other female aspirants their careers.

As a contrast, another woman diplomat, Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, faced none of these travails. With beautifully coiffed hair, blouses with high collars and tasteful silk sarees, she was a figure of sophistication and elegance.

Looking back on my thirty-five years as an Indian Foreign Service (IFS) wife, memories come flooding back; some happy ones, some of wonder, some of stress and tension. Holding an Indian Diplomatic Passport, I was a member of the Embassy, the official hostess of my husband A. Madhavan. I ran the house, helped to make friends with local people, tried to project a good picture of India when we entertained. Life was often hard when faced with linguistic, domestic or medical problems in unfamiliar or unfriendly settings.

Life for the Women Foreign Service Officers of India, however, was hard in the initial years. Our Foreign Service was hierarchical and conservative in format. The rules were heavily weighted against women.

Chonira Belliappa Muthamma (C.B. Muthamma) was the first woman to pass the UPSC exam in 1949 and to opt for the Indian Foreign Service. Born in Virajpet, Kodagu, she was brought up by her mother after she lost her father at an early age. She did her post-graduate degree in English Literature in Madras (Chennai). She held steadfastly to her goal of being an Indian diplomat in spite of many deterrents. When she joined the service, she had to give an undertaking that if she should marry, she would resign. Though this rule was rescinded a couple of years later, it cost a couple of other female aspirants their careers. Ambassador Rukmini Menon was another successful woman diplomat after Muthamma.

Muthamma's undeniable excellence made it impossible deny her a place in the Foreign Service. Yet for some years she was not sent on a foreign assignment. She was at last posted as Third Secretary to the Indian Embassy in Paris, and in later years as Ambassador to Hungary, Ghana and the Netherlands. Her struggle for gender equality has helped later Indian women diplomats.

In 1979, she went to the Supreme Court against the Government of India, citing gender discrimination. In a landmark judgement, Justice V.R. Krishna Iyer ruled in favour of Muthamma, and thereby also helped the many women who now have joined the IFS after her.

She never stood for unfairness and deceit. For a while we lived in a big gated colony in Delhi where she had an apartment. Tamil people, many from Salem, worked there. Once there were complaints of valuables missing. Krishnan and Gopalan, two Tamilians who had been framed for the thefts, were taken away to the Police Station. But though subjected to brutal interrogation, they did not break down and were released. Muthamma discovered the real culprits, Krishnan and Gopalan were exonerated and the guilty were sacked.

Muthamma had acquired a farm in Mehrauli near Delhi in the early years. When she retired, it was worth a very large sum of money if sold. But she chose to give it away to charity; very few people know of this generous gesture. Muthamma was fond of cooking and published a book "The Essential Kodava Cookbook" and also a book of essays titled "Slain by the System..." An admirer of hers remarked it would be more apt to say "Slayer of the System."

After we retired and came to live in Mysuru, she visited us a couple of times with her brother en route to Bengaluru. Smiling and relaxed, she enjoyed the sweets made for her. We both respected and admired her courage and will power.

As a contrast, another woman diplomat, Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit (1900-1990) faced none of these travails. Originally named Swarup Kumari Nehru, eleven years younger than her brother, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, schooled in Switzerland, her background was one of aristocratic status and wealth. However, she was influenced by Mahatma Gandhi. She was politically active in local self governing bodies in India and later "entered" diplomacy when she was sent as Her Excellency, Indian Ambassador to the erstwhile Soviet Union (1947-1948). She was the first Asian woman to be President of the UN General Assembly in 1953. With beautifully coiffed hair, blouses with high collars and tasteful silk sarees, she was a figure of sophistication and elegance.

In 1954 she was appointed High Commissioner to London. She was acclaimed for her tact and diplomacy. She also maintained contacts with important dignitaries and gave elegant parties attending even to small details to ensure perfection. We were told this apocryphal story by a High Commission Official who claimed he was present at the occasion.

A big party was to be held at the High Commissioner's Residence so he was inspecting a brass plaque in the foyer. A lady from our own High Commission, a young diplomat's wife, who was expert at flower arranging, came in early, took one look at the flower arrangement placed under the plaque and exclaimed loudly, "Oh dear! What a ghastly arrangement!"

She then pulled it to pieces and rearranged it to her satisfaction. The embarrassed official, with bent head, kept polishing the already gleaming plaque. Then a curtain in an alcove at the back was pushed aside and Her Excellency Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, who had been there arranging a second flower vase, emerged.

The lady stammered, "I came by to see if I could be of help..." Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit replied in silky tones, "Thank you dear for ALL your help. Everything is under control now. Goodbye!" As soon as the woman left, she said to the official, "Never let that woman come here again."

Women in the Indian Foreign Service have now held the post of Foreign Secretary with great distinction, others are heading important missions worldwide, bringing honour to themselves and to India, the country they represent abroad. I felicitate them all. I was lucky to be a part of that world, I was enriched to see lands and meet new people. I could not have done that without being a diplomatic wife, a Diplomate!

Leicester Cricket Ground named after Sunil Gavaskar

Leicester, July 26- Sunil Gavaskar is an all-time great in world cricket. The former Indian cricket team captain is often considered as one of the most skilled batters ever. He was the first cricketer to score 10,000 runs and once held the record for most number (34) of centuries. During the 70s and 80s, when West Indies were ruling world cricket, Gavaskar impressed with his impressive technique against the Windies fast bowlers. He was also part of the Indian team that won the 1983 World Cup. Now, honouring the legendary cricketer, a ground in Leicester has been named after him.

"Blessed to have a ground in Leicester named after me. This is a recognition not for me but for all those who played with me from tennis ball days to the internationals, my family and last but not least, my fans and well-wishers. Thank you all for being part of this unforgettable journey," Gavaskar wrote on social media after the ground was named after him.

Recently, Gavaskar has touched upon the aspects that might help Kohli return to his best form. The former Indian cricket captain has not scored a ton since Nov. 2019. His recent form has not been great either.

It may be mentioned here that on Oct. 15, 2017, Gavaskar inaugurated a cricket field in Louisville in the State of Kentucky in United States, thus making it the first international sporting facility named after an Indian sportsperson. The "Sunil M. Gavaskar Cricket Field", serves as the home ground for Louisville Cricket Club, which is part of the 42-team MidWest Cricket League. Gavaskar was presented the keys of the ground by Louisville Mayor Greg Fischer.

WORD OF THE DAY

Akimbo

Pronunciation: uh-KIM-boh.
Meaning: Akimbo means "having the hand on the hip and the elbow turned outward." It is also used in the broader sense of "set in a bent position."
Origin: It's akimbo nowadays, but in Middle English, the adverbial phrase in kenebowe was used for the bent, hand-on-hip arm (or later, for any bent position). Originally, the term was fairly neutral, but now saying that a person is standing with "arms akimbo" implies a posture that communicates defiance, confidence, aggressiveness, or arrogance.
Example: "When these little frogs jump, they leap spectacularly, their airborne bodies imbued with all hope.... In their final descent, the toadlets sometimes reach for a handhold, but the effort is for naught. They crash to ground, arms akimbo, landing not on their forelimbs with grace, but on their butt, their belly, their back, their head, in bouncing-beach-ball defeat."

THE ODD WORD

Abeng

Jamaican bugle made from cow horn.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

A change is as good as a rest

Meaning: A change is as good as a rest is a proverb that expresses, in a fairly straightforward literal way, the notion that a change from one's regular occupation is as restorative as a holiday.
Origin: 'A change is as good as a rest' is a product of the Victorian era. Many proverbs from that time encourage the strengthening of moral fibre, effort and industry. This one is harder to understand the motive for as it is more of an observation than an exhortation. The idea expressed in the proverb is first found in the Christian Gleaner and Domestic Magazine, 1825: Change of work is as good as play. This isn't the source of the phrase as we now use it though. The currently used wording of the proverb is first found as the title of a poem that was widely published from 1857 onward. Here's the earliest example that I know of, from the English newspaper The Hampshire Advertiser, August 1857: Ye votaries of sofas and beds
Ye sloths who exertion detest,
This maxim I wish to drive into your heads
A change is as good as a rest.

The measure of intelligence is the ability to change. —Albert Einstein

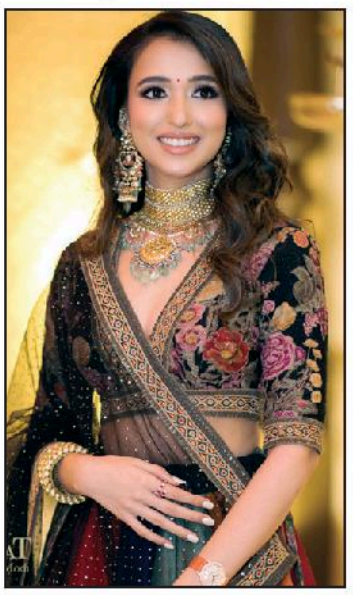
Impressionz presents GoldKarat Jewellery Expo on July 27, 28

Mysuru, July 26- Impressionz will present GoldKarat Jewellery Expo — fine jewels by Ritu Modi — at Hotel Southern Star on Vinoba Road in city on July 27 and 28 between 11 am and 8 pm.



About GoldKarat: The journey of the house of GoldKarat began 30 years ago, with a simple vision to make precious jewellery that could be adorned routinely, instead of being tucked away in lockers and treasuries. GoldKarat's inspiration was, and remains, the flaws in each gemstone that make it beautiful and truly unique; just as each individual is also beautiful and unique because of their flaws. The brand's mission has always been to become a part of the way people choose to express their unique identities.

Today, the brand still carries that belief; every piece of GoldKarat jewellery is a unique yet wearable piece of art, that speaks volumes about the handiwork that goes into crafting it. From fine & uncut diamonds and freshwater pearls to gemstone like rubies, sapphires, and emeralds, GoldKarat's gold jewellery is designed with love, dedication and expertise.

The brand has shown great expansion in last 20 years with more than 500 craftsmen at the company's workshops around India. The jewellery is sold exclusively throughout India and showcasing in more than 100 exhibitions held annually in more than 70 cities worldwide. The Company has been endorsing their fine craftsmanship to the global market in Asia-Pacific namely Australia, Bahrain, Singapore, UAE, UK and USA for the last ten years. GoldKarat assures for the quality and perfection. Henceforth, the Jewellery is "BIS Hallmark" and comes with certification.
